How it Works

Upon registration, a small deposit in the amount of 20% of the hotel package is required to reserve your room. This will be billed to your DC account. Your DC account will be billed the balance of the travel package including airfare if purchased from Cardinal Travel with payment terms beginning the month after you register. Payment terms for the balance of the package (less deposit) are available for a period of up to eight (8) consecutive months depending on the month you register, concluding in December 2013.

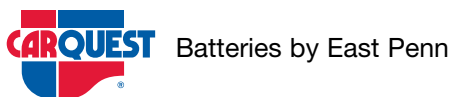

Co-Op

$1000 of either your 2013 or 2014 co-op funds can be used to offset the cost of your travel package. One trip for two, per store is eligible based on the availability of funds in your co-op account. You can file for these funds upon proof of $1000 or more being paid toward your trip inclusive of deposit.

Disney Coronado Springs Resort Orlando, Florida

Relive the romance of Spanish-colonial Mexico as you follow in the footsteps of explorer Don Francisco de Coronado at this Resort hotel. Find your own mythical city of gold in a Southwestern-themed haven of brightly colored Casitas, rustic Ranchos and beachfront Cabanas encircling a glimmering 22-acre lake. Each accommodation provides a unique escape and a welcoming home away from home.

Sun worshipers of all ages will dig the Dig Site, a sprawling pool complex with a Mayan ruins theme. Discover the Lost City of Cibola feature pool, whose centerpiece is a 50-foot pyramid where weary explorers can revive themselves in the waters streaming down its stone steps. A 123-foot-long waterslide featuring a spitting Jaguar spirit animal makes for a fierce ride.

The Dig Site also boasts the largest hot tub on Walt Disney World Resort property, with room for 22 tribesmen. Seasonal poolside activities, Siesta's pool bar, a white-sand volleyball court, the Iguana Arcade and a kiddie pool offer golden opportunities for fun.

Three quiet pools, one located at each settlement—the Casitas, Ranchos and Cabanas—provide Mayan civilization.

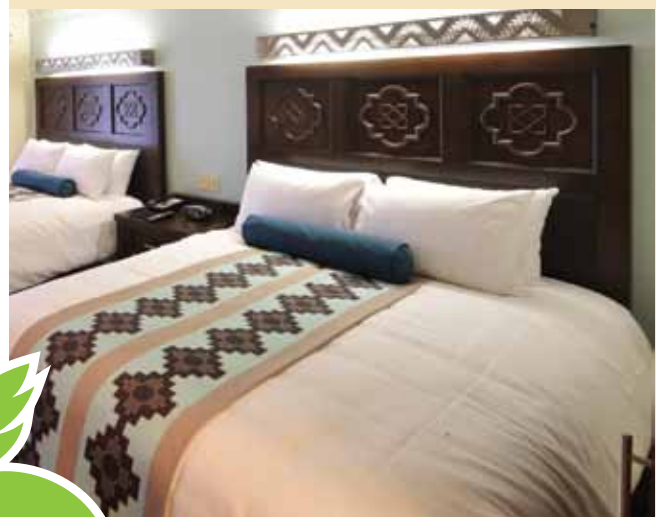

The Disney Coronado Springs Resort is a large property. If you have mobility challenges, please alert us at the time of making your reservations and every effort will be made to have your room as close to the Conference Center as possible.
